Re: United States v. Anton Peraire-Bueno and James Peraire-Bueno, Case No. 1:24-cr-00293; Consent Motion for Temporary Modification of Conditions of Release

Dear Judge Clarke:

With the consent of Pretrial Services and the government, Defendants James Peraire-Bueno (“James”) and Anton Peraire-Bueno (“Anton”) respectfully request a temporary modification of their conditions of release for the purpose of offramping cryptocurrency wallets in order to pay for legal expenses in this matter. Both James and Anton have as conditions of their release a prohibition on trading cryptocurrency. Dkts. 8, 20. Certain of their unfrozen cryptocurrency assets (unrelated to the alleged trading activity at issue in this case) need to be offramped to United States dollars in order to pay for their continued legal expenses in this case. Accordingly, James and Anton request a temporary modification of the prohibition on cryptocurrency trading to permit them to take all necessary steps, within 14 days from an order allowing this request, to offramp the cryptocurrency held in the particular vault and wallets identified in my July 16, 2025 email to the government and Pretrial Services.<sup>1</sup>

Neither the government nor Pretrial Services objects to this requested modification.

Sincerely,

/s/ Katherine Trefz
